PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28.—The game today was full of errors. The score does not show half of the poor plays. In the fifth Chicago scored eleven runs, earning only one. The visitors were in on the errors too, but they bunched them in the third, when they did not count for much. Hughes and Donahue had to retire on account of injuries. Attendance, 1,300. Score:

THE TOOTER'S TOOT.

Hear the tooters with the bells—
Old row bells.
What a world of worriment
Their ding-a-ling foretells!
How they jingle-jangle-jingle
When the lullies make a point
While the Yankee groans commingle
Till they sound just like a single
Cry from some poor soul that's done!
Keeping time, time, time,
With a hee-hee, jolly rhyme
To the duncannadiddle that arises from the horns—
To the toots, toots, toots, toots,
Toots, toots, toots,
To the tootings and the hootings of the horns!

Hear the hootings and the groans—
Megaphones!
What a bedlamatic squawk is in their tones!
Through the balmy evening air
How they push an awful scare
Into bicycles and horses' round the block!
To the copper there
On his beat!
In the street!
What a gush of grossness volu-
mously groans!
How it swells!
How it dwells
On the lullies! how it tells
Of excitement that impels
All the groaning and the moaning
Thro' the phones—
Thro' the home-made wrapping-paper
megaphones!

WATKINS SIZED THEM UP.

The New Manager Took a Look at the Timber he is to Direct.
W. H. Watkins, the manager of the Pittsburgh team for 1898, came to Pittsburgh yesterday with Vice President Phil Auten, of Chicago, and was a spectator to the game with Anson's Colts. Mr. Watkins declined to express an opinion as to the ability of the club or the probable value to him of individual players. He took the ground that it would be indecent to talk now, but said there were some good players on the team, without naming those who caught his judgment.
He will return to Pittsburgh at the close of the season and formally take charge of the playing end of the club's affairs. It is said that he has decided upon practically a new team, and that the stars of the present aggregation will form the beginning of the changes to be made in securing new men for next season.

BOWLING.

The Wheeling Bowling League is the title of the aggregation of clubs which will bowl for supremacy at Fette's new alleys the coming winter and fall months. Like its predecessor, the new league promises to be successful, and a thing of enjoyment to all concerned. The season opens shortly, and is being eagerly anticipated. This evening the Old Cronies will meet at the alleys for practice. They want to be in shape when the going starts.

FOOT BALL.

The Tigers have almost selected their line-up for the game Saturday afternoon, with the East Liverpool Monarchs. It is the best that ever represented a local team, and it's dollars to doughnuts that the Buckeye lads, who claim the championship of Eastern Ohio, will drop that claim ere Saturday's sun goes down. If the Tigers win this game they intend challenging the West Virginia University boys. Their dates for the season are about all filled, however, yet Marietta College and others are clamoring for games. It is likely "Doggy" Trenchard's Western University of Pennsylvania eleven will be secured for Thanksgiving Day, which is at present an open date. Holy Ghost College, of Pittsburgh, also wants to come down that day.

A good crowd should witness next Saturday afternoon's game at the Island ball park. The admission is low and the Tigers should be given encouragement. They are made up of players who are in it for the love of the game, and it doesn't seem right that in a town of this size, amateurs whose work brings credit to their town, should be forced to go down their jeans for payment of the grounds and expenses of the visiting team.

Now the Ritchie team is the most anxious to line-up against anything the Junior League can produce. Captain Honnecker is very enthusiastic and promises to have his team ready when the bugle sounds for action. In regard to a regular schedule, Professor State, of the Y. M. C. A., says he is opposed to it. He is in favor of several junior teams, but arranging dates as they may see fit. The Y. M. C. A. team is now being trained in the "gym" by Director State, who is teaching them the formations, signals, etc.

JUNIOR WORKERS.

The Juniors of the United Presbyterian Church Hold Their Annual Convention.

The Young People's Christian Union met at the United Presbyterian church last evening, in its eighth annual convention, concluding with this evening's session. The church was comfortably filled and considerable interest was manifest.

This evening the convention opens at 9:30 o'clock, and Mr. P. B. Logan, of Brownsville, will lead in devotional exercises. Then will follow a discussion of papers. McLaughlin will follow with the report of the Indianapolis convention. Mr. John Giffen will then discuss "What the Young Christian can do to maintain the sanctity of the Sabbath." Mr. S. T. Kerr, of Martin's Ferry, will conclude with "The Influence of Young People in Temperance."

In the afternoon the Sabbath School convention will be held.

AMUSEMENTS.

A melodrama devoid of blood and thunder, but with a plot of absorbing interest, with realistic stage effects and a competent cast—such a production is "The Fast Mail," which is now on the boards at the Grand Opera House. Last night another delighted audience left that popular theatre when the curtain descended after a very happy finale. The specialties interspersed during the action of the piece, were enthusiastically received. The engagement closes with matinee and evening performances today. Seats at the box office.

ALWAYS ON TIME.

"Always on Time," is the title of a new sensational melodrama that will be given its initial production in this city, at the Grand Opera House, September 30th. Life in the frontier west among its cosmopolitan people is portrayed with a truthfulness that is appreciated by audiences who have had inflicted upon them frontier plays whose only qualities were their pictures of bloodshed and other acts of violence. The piece is interpreted by a powerful cast, among them may be mentioned W. R. Walters, Taylor Carroll, J. S. Stewart, William Turner, C. Jay Smith, Daniel F. McCoy, Mac R. Barnes, W. H. St. James, Minnie Wilson, Laura Dacre St. James and Anna Little.

WILD WEST SHOW.

Stage coach robberies, revolver duels, and the scenes which are daily occurrences among the adventurous spirits which inhabit the frontier west, where the six-shooters is the arbitrator of all questions is given in a realism that is startling in "Always on Time," which comes to the Grand Opera House for three days, September 30th. The play tells the story of the scheming of a set of men who seek to usurp the fortune of a former associate through trickery, desertion and murder, the trouble they cause their victorious friends to thwart their designs and these friends always arrive in the nick of time and finally triumph.

THE RIVER.

The Fair play, running in the Clarington trade, had not arrived at nightfall, last evening.

A New Orleans dispatch of Saturday last says: "Not a solitary steamboat left this port to-day, which is the first time such a thing has occurred on Saturday within the recollection of the oldest river veteran. No business of any kind in the river line."

STUDYING THE CHANNEL.

Pittsburgh Pilots Taking an Autumn Trip to Louisville in a Small Boat.
The Packet Trade.

A party of Pittsburgh pilots started yesterday for a low-water voyage to Louisville, the purpose of their trip being to study changes in the channel of the Ohio river since last season. The freshets are always washing new channels, and forming new sand bars, while new snags and obstructions are constantly finding lodgment in the river bed, and consequently the pilots must keep posted on the changes. It has been the custom of harbor No. 25, Masters & Pilots' Association, to send out a number of its members each year to make a report on the condition of the channel. This season the party chartered the Nellie Bly, and took a pumpboat belonging to the W. W. O'Neil Coal Company in tow, to be delivered at Louisville. The following constitute the party: Park R. Breneman, captain; A. C. Robinson, Joseph Gould, Frank Gould, Jacob Menkes, Joseph H. Latta and Francis Culp. William Craft, engineer of the Tom Dodsworth, went along as engineer of the Nellie Bly. The voyage down will probably take ten days or more.

TURN DAY.

Active Members of Pittsburgh District Turnverein to Meet in Wheeling.

The members of the Wheeling Turnverein are eagerly anticipating the district Turn day, which occurs in this city, October 10, at Turner hall, North Market street. Turn day is an occasion when at least a few, if not the class, of every Turnverein in Pittsburgh district, meet together and go through a regular programme of work. The class instructors also attend, and the exhibitions prove beneficial to all who attend.

The new features of one class are exchanged with those of another, so that the representatives return to their respective towns with new views to impart in the coming months. There are twenty-four classes in the Pittsburgh district, and from seventy-five to one hundred active Turners are expected to attend the Wheeling meeting. The exercises will continue from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. The Wheeling boys will entertain the visitors and an enjoyable good time is sure to be the result.

The different officers of the district will also gather in Wheeling that day, and transact the business now on hand. The gathering of the Turners here that day is due in a large measure to the personal efforts of President Joseph Weisgerber. He has always the interests of the Turnverein at heart, and will do anything to further its success. He, among others, are trying to get the district convention for Wheeling next spring, and it is confidently expected that this city will land the prize. It is about ten years since it was held in this city, while there has been no Turn day here since 1881.

CHURCH TROUBLE.

The Macedonian Baptist Congregation Airing its Troubles in Court.

The only case in the criminal court yesterday, was that of the state against W. J. Johnson. This is the famous or infamous Macedonian Colored Baptist church scrap which occurred some time since, wherein the congregation is about equally divided and as equally determined to establish two ministers in the one pulpit, and the result the past few weeks has been that the first faction to reach the church would hold the pulpit if not for preaching the gospel, it would be to discuss the question at issue, and hence finally the suit.

Ex-Congressman John O. Pendleton appeared for the defense, while Attorney J. J. Conitt and Prosecuting Attorney Meyer were for the prosecution.

The case is a ridiculous one and is causing considerable mirth. And no doubt it could have been amicably settled outside of court.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

Last night a meeting of the Presbyterian church was held in the lecture room, at which time it was decided to give an oyster supper in the church, next Saturday night. An executive committee of ten members was appointed, consisting of the chairmen of the different committees. These committees are table, programme, waiters, supper, menu, reception, press, soliciting and ticket and cloak room. The supper will be entirely in charge of the men and promises to be different from any one ever given in Martin's Ferry. Another meeting will be held to-night, to which all of the men are invited.

An entertainment will be given in the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow night, for the purpose of raising money to purchase an organ for the primary department. No admission will be charged, but there will be a free will offering.

Mrs. Hannah Mendenhall, of Richmond, Ind., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waters, returned home yesterday. Mrs. Elizabeth P. Milhouse, of Butler, Ind., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Waters.

Mrs. Samuel Thompson, who underwent an operation yesterday, at the hands of Drs. Rau and Hogan, is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Shreve-Hervey building is being nicely repainted.

The Evil Eye.

Savage people, have a superstition that an evil eye may be cast upon a person to bring all sorts of trouble and misfortune. That seems like a pretty foolish notion; but it isn't much worse than some of the notions of the civilized people indulge in. One worn out superstition is the belief that if a man inherits weak lungs from his parents he is in peril to die of consumption. The actual fact is that if such a man will only take proper care of himself he will really be safe from consumption, a careless person who has no inherited weakness. Carelessness is the real evil eye. Carelessness will develop a tendency to consumption in any body.
The lungs are composed of very delicate, sensitive tissue, even in the healthiest person; that is why they yield so quickly to the attack of tainted blood. If the blood is allowed to get impure and impoverished, and bile-poisoned, the seeds of consumption will spring up in the best kind of a constitution. The real consumption-taint is in the blood.
Hundreds of cases of so-called "hereditary" consumption have been completely and permanently rooted out of the system by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, simply because it gives the blood-making glands power to pour a fresh abundant supply of rich, red, healthy, blood into the circulation. This drives out all poisonous and unhealthy germs. It stops the waste of blood, and the formation of morbid deposits; builds up fresh, normal, healthy lung tissue and solid muscular strength.
In all the weakened debilitated conditions which are the forerunners of consumption, Dr. Pierce's Discovery is the most perfect nutritive and strength-builder. It is assimilated by the weakest stomachs.

This is the cradle in which there grew
That thought of a philanthropic brain
A remedy that would make life new
For the multitudes that were racked with pain.
'Twas sarsaparilla, as made, you know
By Ayer, some 50 years ago.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

was in its infancy half a century ago. To-day it doth "bestride the narrow world like a colossus." What is the secret of its power? It cures! The number of them! The wonder of them! Imitators have followed it from the beginning of its success. They are still behind it. Wearing the only medal granted to sarsaparilla in the World's Fair of 1893, it points proudly to its record. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record.

50 Years of Cures.

BELLAIRE

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip From the Glass City.

Suddenly and as if mesmerized, some of our Democratic friends have developed an interest in the colored man. A mail agent on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh, a rather bright and active colored chap, secured a place during Cleveland's administration, was forwarded petitions to secure signers to get an Afro-American ticket on the blanket ballot this fall, and these were left in the hands of Democrats to procure signers and they are being signed by Democrats. But the average colored man understands why Democrats want a colored man's ticket on the ballot, and it will cut no figure in this locality. They brought a colored orator to Bellaire last fall and they lost the only colored vote that was likely to have gone to Bryan. The ticket is a new one.

The way the steel works has moved off, new throughout and with appliances never before used here, has been most encouraging to the management. The workmen show an aptness that is most gratifying and gradually the product is increasing. They made nineteen heats on Monday and twenty-four yesterday. As the workmen become familiar with the electric cranes and other appliances they handle the levers with more confidence and accuracy, and all the machinery runs smoother as the work progresses. The start has really been a remarkable one for an entirely new mill of such proportions, a matter of congratulation for the whole community.

A row at Shadydale, below town, yesterday afternoon, resulted in S. A. Kirkland and William Archer pummeling one another quite severely. The cause seems to be mixed up considerably, but both men were used up more than they enjoyed after it was over, and Kirkland sought a justice's office to have the penalty inflicted for his injuries.

William Crawford, the chap caught in W. S. Carroll's store Sunday morning, waived a hearing before Mayor Wilson yesterday and was carried over to the grand jury in the sum of $250. He gave bond and was released.

Howard McGregor, who has been spending several weeks with his parents in this city, will leave to-day, for New York City, where he will resume his duties as an instructor in Columbia College.

Thomas Kane better known as "Tolly," who has been playing ball with the St. Joe team in the Western Association, the past season, has returned to his home in this city.

The first meeting of the University Centre was a very encouraging one, and the fall season opens auspiciously. The Circle will meet in the Episcopal church hereafter.

Hon. Charles J. Howard went to Columbus yesterday and held a conference with the state committee relative to speakers in this county.

Dr. Boone, of Powhatan, was calling on friends in this city yesterday.

Sheriff W. N. Darby, of St. Clairsville, was in the city yesterday.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best I have." J. P. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that it is claimed for; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head, it never disappoints. Logan Drug Co.
